

Are you GDPR Ready?

New regulations for processing Data come into effect on May 25th, 2018.

Are you ready?

Have all of your staff been trained?

Has a Data Audit been completed?

Is there an Information Asset

Register in place?

Have your policies and procedures

been updated to be GDPR compliant?

Do you need some help to make sense of it all?

This training and support is offered by Nicole Godetz. Nicole is an experienced executive head teacher, who now runs her own consultancy company. Nicole works with individuals, schools, businesses and organisations, supporting the implementation of effective work and change management processes. She is an experienced coach, mentor and mediator.

Feedback received from training delivered by Nicole:

“The day met all the outlines mentioned in the beginning of the morning. The trainer was very engaging and encouraged a lot of reflective thinking!”
