

How happy are you with the performance and retention of your young staff?

Are your young staff:

Driven by the company's vision and values?

Clear on their roles in achieving them?

Focusing on their skill strengths?

Rewarded when they perform well?

Do you know what career plans your young staff have?

Can you plan for staff turnover, because you know when it's coming?

Are your young staff retention rates good, turnover low and sickness rates at competitive levels?

Do your young staff work well together as a team?

Do they feel empowered to grow professionally?

Is there clear equity, inclusion and diversity in your workforce?

Do you have a reputation as a 'Good Employer' of young people?

Would you like to focus on any of these aspects?

Demonstrate the importance you put on your young employees' success and boost their, and your organisation's, performance by engaging an effective facilitator.
